Who We Are

The American Society of Military Comptrollers is a non-profit educational and professional organization for both military and civilian personnel.

The Southside Virginia ASMC chapter promotes the education and training of its members. We support the development and advancement of military comptrollership.

Our society provides programs to keep members well-informed on current events, and we encourage the exchange of information, techniques and procedures. Our group engages in local community service projects and participate in numerous fundraising activities to provide scholarship opportunities to local high school students every year.
