

Shea McCullough

Financial Systems Analyst, Defense Logistics Agency - Finance, Aviation

Mr. Shea McCullough originally from Salt Lake City, Utah has spent his adult life serving the DoD in one fashion or another, beginning at joining the Army in the Military Police (MP) Corp at 18 serving 5 years active duty stationed at Fort Stewart, GA wherein he spent time attached to and deployed 16 months in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) in 2006 with the 3d Infantry Division and 89th Airborne Division.

Mr. McCullough earned a Master of Organizational / Project Management and a Bachelor of Organizational Management from the Forbes School of Business, Ashford University, San Diego, CA.

Additionally, he is a Certified Defense Financial Manager (CDFM) and Defense Financial Management Certification Program Level II (DFMCP2), currently working as a Financial Systems Analyst, Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) Finance (J8) supporting the Aviation Major Supply Chain (MSC), Process Management Division in Richmond, VA.

In the past for the DoD he spent time as a Financial Analyst, Quality Assurance / Research at DeCA HQ, Fort Lee, VA, as well as a Business Analyst working on annual pricing for more than 4.2 million Aviation materials and weapon systems, as well as inventory financial reporting DLA, Richmond, VA with each position being powered and leveraged by data.

He is currently a member of and an American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC) Executive Board Vice President representing DLA Richmond's, VA Financial Management warriors.

On his off-time Mr. McCullough enjoys spending time with 12-year-old son, going to the gym, being in the outdoors, and woodworking.